JUSTICE

All the traditions of Niles are represented by the annual Christmas dance, and are reflected here in the smiles and laughter of Sandy Eggert, Sue Backus, Rick Ricordati, and Jim Dahlman, as Gwen Johnson tells Santa (Don Brei) her Christmas wish.

CHARACTER

Over a period of twenty years

Twenty classes have entered here as bewildered freshmen

And graduated as more responsible citizens.

Each teacher, each friend, and each victory of the team

Influences these classes,

But it is the personal decisions

Made by each individual

That determine the character of that citizen.

Chosen on the basis of character to receive the Hi-Y Citizenship Award, Karen Rosenquist and Ron Henrici show "Joe" Tagliabue, our first foreign exchange student, some trophies acquired during Niles' twenty years.

FRIENDSHIP

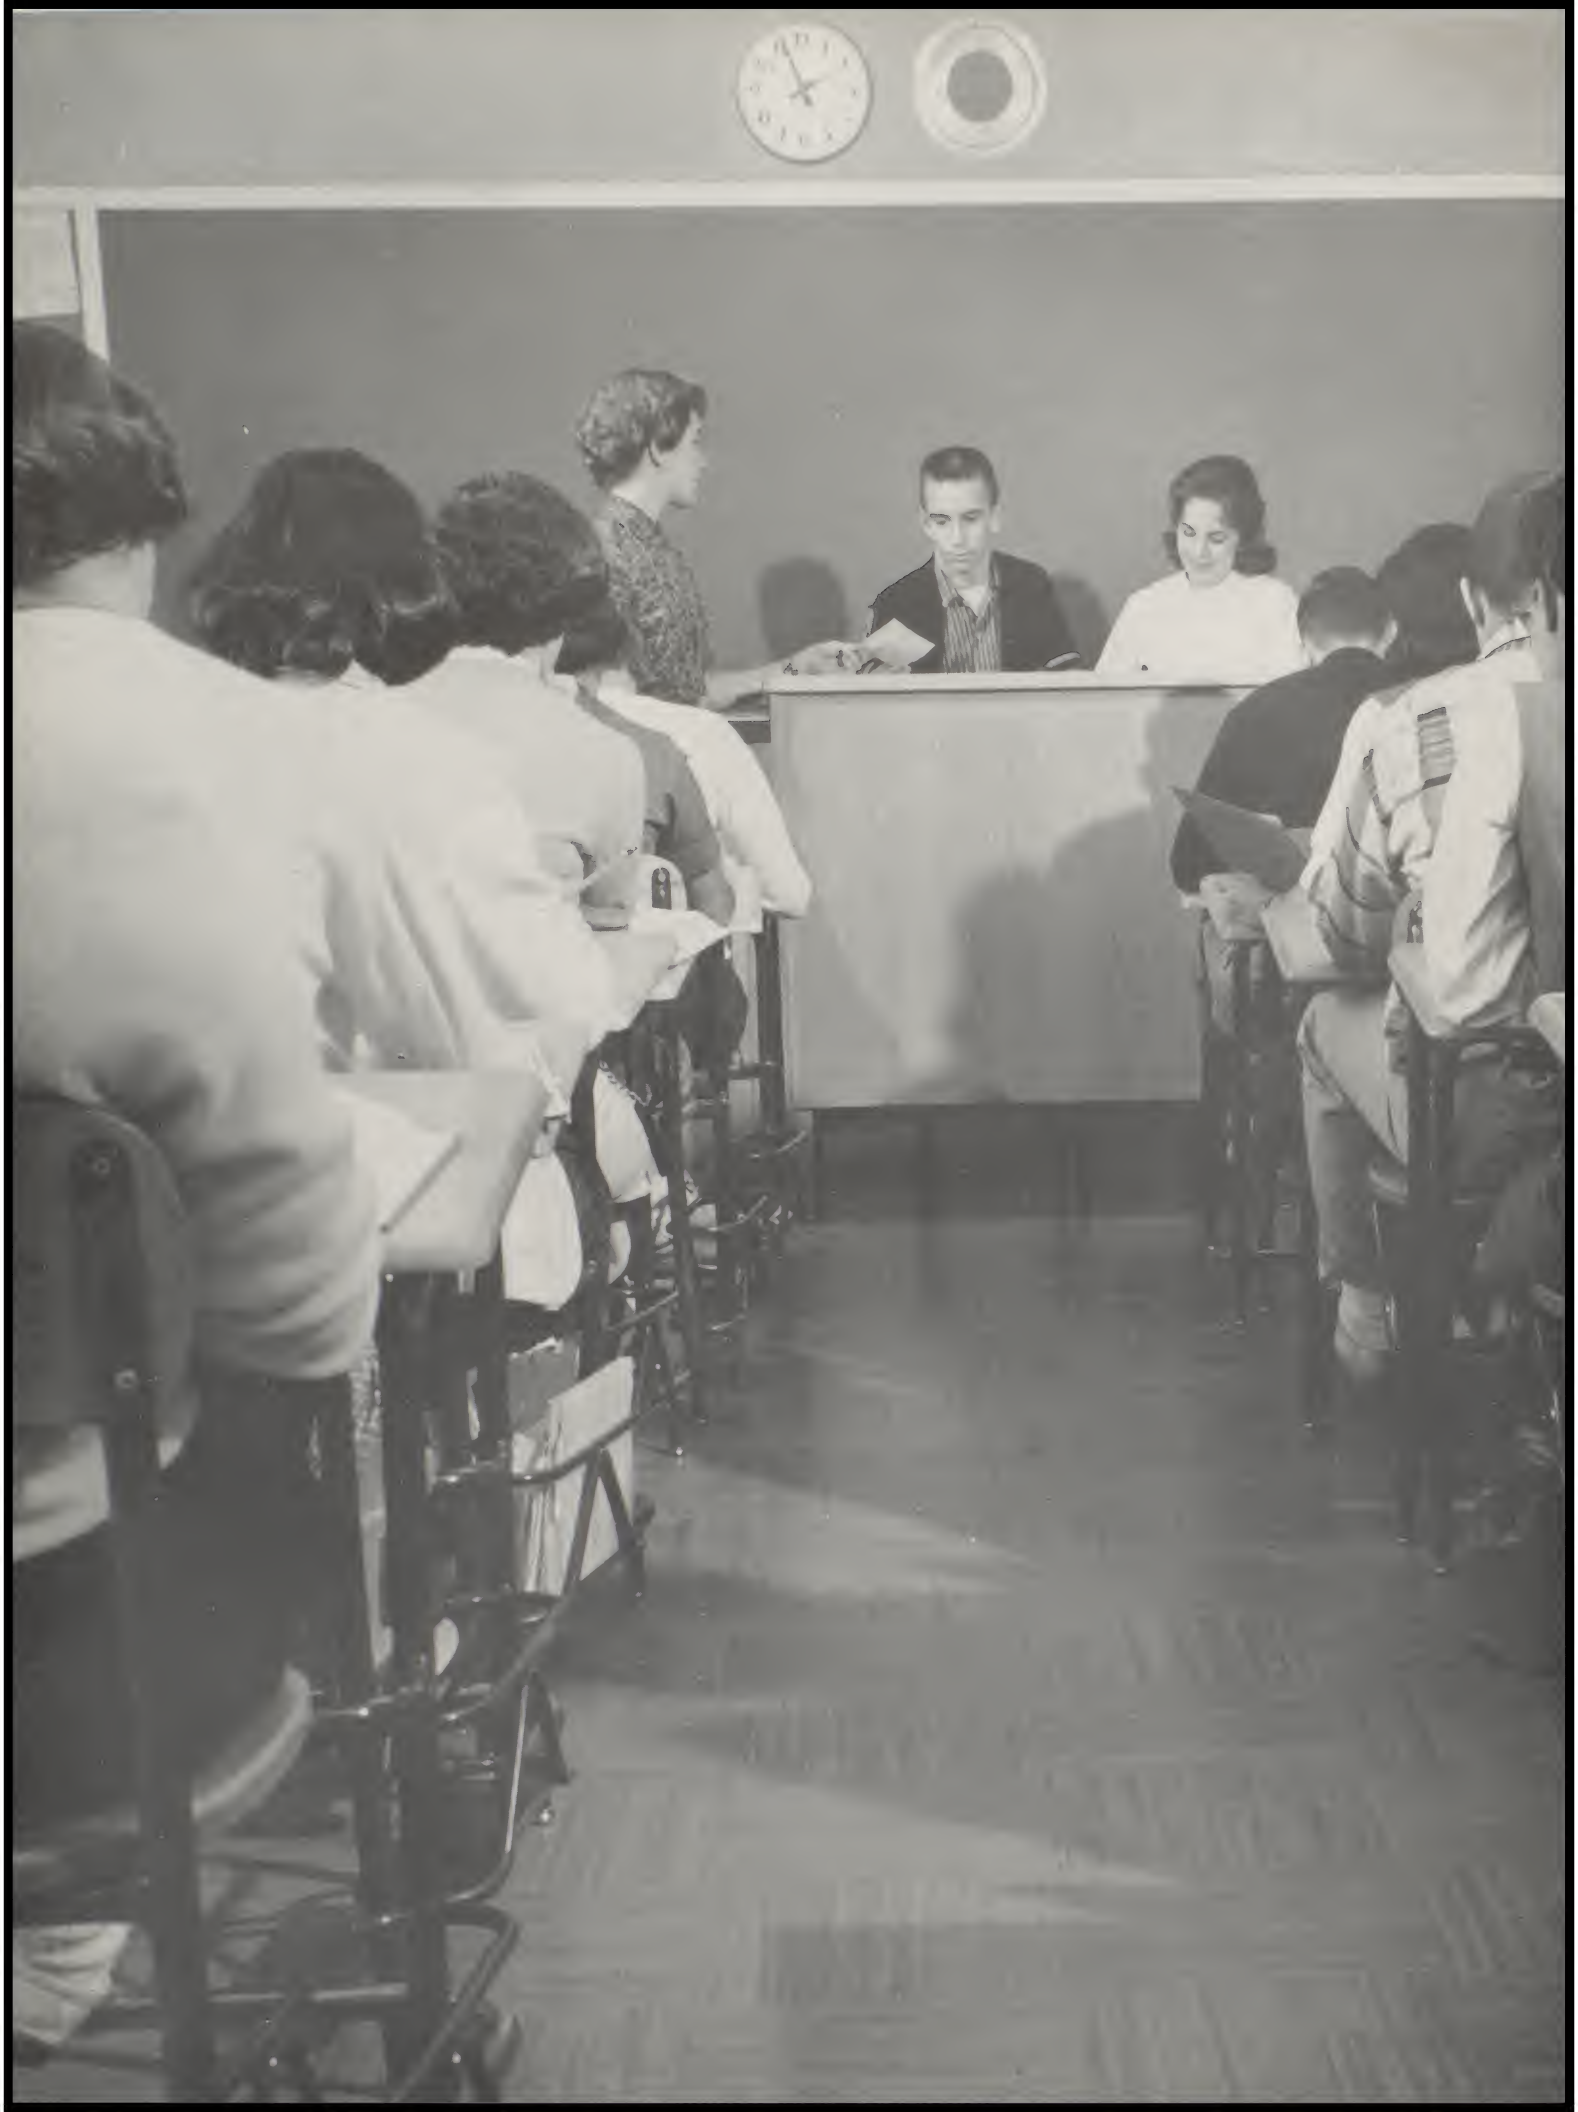
Being a part of the group and having fun
Is a tradition older than our school.
We may differ on which beach to go to,
What station to tune in,
Or what brand of soft drinks we like,
But we all agree on the most important thing —
We enjoy being together.



LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

There is a certain amount of pride
That swells within us
When we are asked to take charge of
A class or an organization.
We may never be valedictorian
Or class president,
But we value being an example for others
In any phase of serving our school.
Service is not just a twenty year old school tradition
But one that is planted and grows
Within each of us, individually.

A study hall is one of many opportunities in school for increased responsibility as well as for academic growth. Bob Dilg checks Pam Bradley's admit while Marcia Braverman takes roll.

KNOWLEDGE

Whether it's delving through books

The week before a term paper is due

Or reading for pleasure,

Our minds search for knowledge.

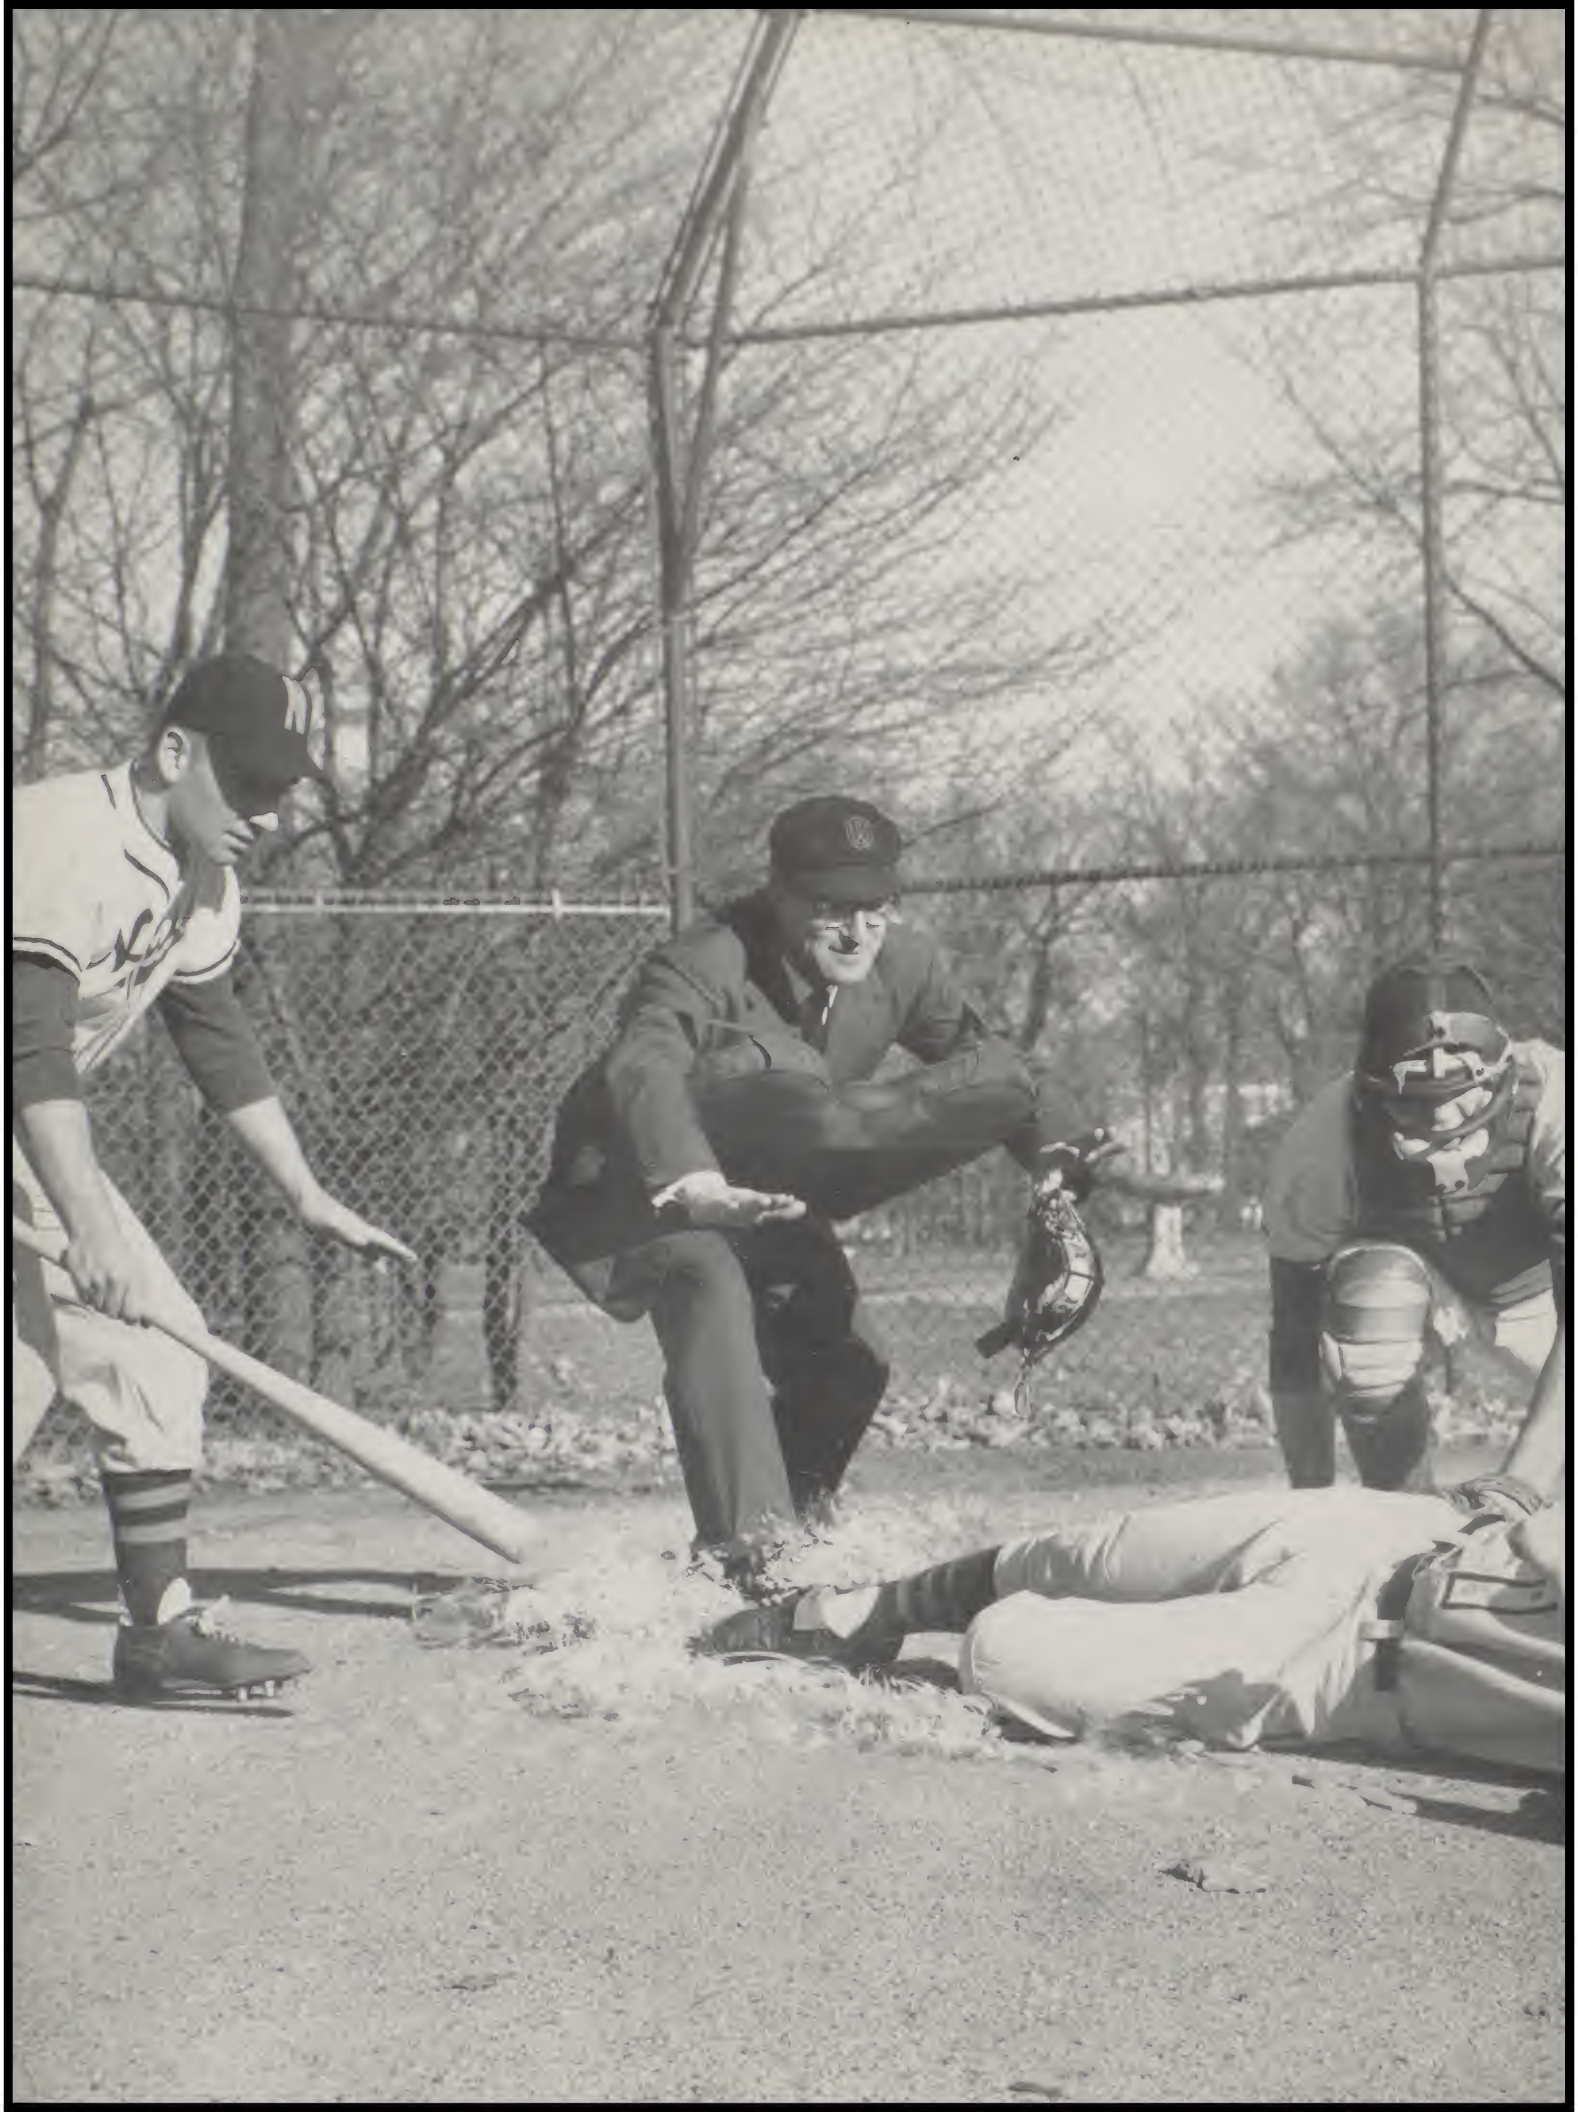
We realize that learning is a tradition,

And a phase of this tradition

Is discovering the ideas of men

Through the ages.

In the beautiful new West Division library, Diane Stevens, Carole Woods, Joan Murlas, Howard Alter, and Todd Wise find studying a challenge and browsing for books enjoyable.



JUSTICE

"He's safe!", and we shout with joy

When our team is trying for the run,

Or it evokes an exclamation of dismay

When the opponent scores

But regardless of the decision

We abide by the umpire's judgment,

And realize what is meant

By the tradition of justice and fair play.

Team members Barry Mink, Ron Lis, and Ron Henrici, with umpire Rev. Robert Schumm, learn that school sports teach fair play. A long slide and the umpire's call in an extra inning meant a second place state championship for Niles' baseball team last spring!

THE CLASSROOM

Because the Science Fair stimulates student initiative and ability, it has become an important tradition at Niles. Sophomore Trudy Saunders explains her project on the breeding of fruit flies to one of the many visitors at the fair, and to fellow classmate Ron Johnson.

HAMLET

COURSES OFFERED ON VARIED LEVELS

When Niles was first established in 1939 as an academic institution, little space was available for classroom activity. After twenty years of increased student enrollment, the school has expanded not only into new rooms, but also into a new building. Today, facilities and instruction in the English department have increased from seven rooms to 29, and from only five teachers to 29. In addition to allotting space for regular academic achievement, the new West Division also offers special facilities such as a Speech Clinic, a Reading Clinic, and a Special Education room for students whose ability is considerably lower than average. Additions to the curriculum, including a Modern Communications course offered for the first time this year, Grammar and Writing classes, and the Intensive Reading program, enable students who are not qualified for accelerated courses to study literature and writing skill on their own level. Twenty years ago, instruction geared to the individual abilities and needs of students was but a dream; today, it has become a reality.

Special instruction, such as this geography lesson in Jr. Scholastic magazine, is given to mentally handicapped children by Miss Winifred Wells.

Miss Kennedy uses the tachistascope in helping Pennie Loutsch, Gary Heinz, Jim Eckmann, and Alberta Segalla improve their reading skill.

In connection with their study of William Shakespeare in sophomore English, Edward Nadler, Betty Ann Barber, Janice Witzel, and Robert Fajnor discuss the television version of the Old Vic production of "Hamlet."

CURRICULUM PROVIDES FOR ACCELERATED ENGLISH

Karen Cramer and Steve Rioff discover the mysteries of logic, an integral part of Composition I.

Courses in English are not only offered on a remedial and average basis. While students are required to complete a three-year sequence in English, subject matter is also taught on an advanced level to students capable of handling more difficult material. American Ideas, which emphasizes American literature from the standpoint of the important ideas around which it has tended to form, was introduced this year to juniors. Composition on the senior level was first made available in 1955, while Honors Reading had its beginning in 1956. Together, these two courses help increase the college-bound senior's awareness of organization in writing as well as stimulate his appreciation of the social and psychological aspects of the novel, poetry, and drama. Soon these relatively new courses will become traditional courses that every student at Niles will take in preparation for his future.

Neither the charm of Steve Fox, the athletic vigor of Lance Lindquist, nor the "searching mind" of Ron Krone can deter Honors Reading student Noel Ostrom from her work.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Senior Social Studies students Richard Jornd, Pat Nelson, Carolyn Kuchar, and Gary Roubinek study the characteristics and resources of Russia.

In 1939, when the Social Science department was in the first stages of development, there were only four teachers and three rooms in which to teach. The courses offered then, United States History, World History, and Senior Social Studies, were the basic foundation for today's department. From this modest beginning came new opportunities for gaining knowledge of civics and history; today, twenty years later, there are twenty-five teachers and twenty-four rooms devoted solely to social studies. Five entirely new courses have been added to the original curriculum; Economics, Latin American History, Sociology, Family Living, and Freshman Social Studies.

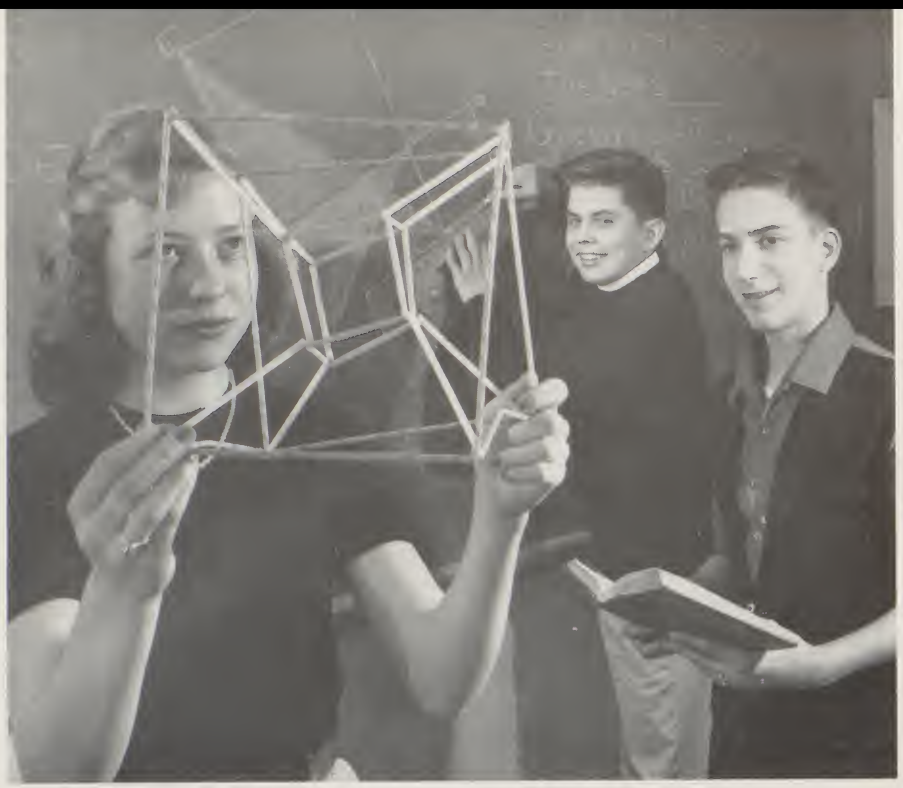
Today's courses, as well as those being planned for the future, are designed to help the student appreciate the contributions of past civilizations, to create an awareness of the principles and accomplishments of America, and to promote an understanding of human relations.

Freshman Social Studies students listen attentively as Al Krause discusses Japan as a strategic point of world importance.



Ellen Elkin and Howard Moldofsky examine a straw polygon while Emil Lazer constructs the Pythagorean Theorem.

Norm Carberry and Dixie Nelson calculate the temperature and pressure while deriving oxygen from a magnesium and water reaction.

Solving college calculus problems presents a challenge to math analysis students Ron Krischke, Kent Krause, and Dave Kreinick.

NEW FACILITIES STIMULATE SCIENTIFIC INTERESTS

The increasing importance of science and math in the 20th century is reflected in educational curricula. When Niles was established in 1939, there were comparatively few facilities available for the study of these subjects. Since that time, the number of rooms devoted to science and math has increased five-fold, and modern equipment such as a centrifuge and radiation counter has been provided to keep students abreast of the latest developments in specialized fields. New classes have been started for students with the interest and ability to work on the college level in math analysis and physics, and a weekly Science Seminar provides the opportunity for young scientists to work with experts in many fields. Besides these classes, started within the past two years, subjects such as Physiology, Psychology, Botany, and Zoology have been added to broaden and supplement the original 1939 curriculum.

The West Division conservatory makes growing and caring for plants more of a pleasure than a task for Gerry Brower and Joan Cisar.

Terrene Milestein studies the structure of animal life by dissecting a fetal pig as Ken Matzick and Beverly Johnson examine slides concerned with the experiment.

Could Virginia Schramm, Marsha Silverman, Barbara Melehes, Gail Kastil and Sandy Wadsworth look as interesting to the fish as the fish look to them?

In preparation for secretarial careers, Eileen Weinberg, Betty Kriz, Barbara Barkey, Barbara Wertz, Sherrill Williamson, Mavis McKenzie, Helen Skutta, Lynda Comacho, Carolyn Roltgen, and Sharon Buckman operate electric typewriters and comptometers.

COMMERCIAL COURSES OFFER SKILLS AND TRAINING

What leads up to a secretary's response when the employer says, "Take a letter, Miss Smith?" The first step is the study of basic courses in typing, shorthand, and other clerical and secretarial practices. These courses have been in existence at Niles since it opened in 1939, but new opportunities in the field of business education have been made available in recent years in the form of salesmanship and advertising classes. The three business education rooms provided in 1939 have expanded to nine, and are furnished with all the latest office equipment, so that a Niles graduate can face the business world with confidence.

Taking five-minute timing helps increase the speed of first year typists K. Nelson, P. McAvoy, J. Siegel, F. Friedman, L. Sklar, H. Hyman, A. Schramm, L. Richmond, J. Dritlein, A. Segalla, M. Green, E. Bernstein, N. Eaman, V. Schramm, and N. Scott.

Home economics students Nancy Scott, Judy Johnson, Pat Stille, and Joyce Zolezzi learn effective table arranging as well as cooking.

Frank Didier, Ron Lis, and Dave Kloepfer assemble the parts of their chaise lounge as an advanced project in wood shop.

INDUSTRIAL AND HOME ARTS COURSES COMBINE THEORY AND PRACTICE

When ground was broken in 1937 for a Niles Township High School, the homemakers, architects, engineers, and mechanics to be needed only two rooms in which to study, but as enrollment increased the two rooms became inadequate. In the fall of 1954 the first addition to the building was completed, and there were "oohs" and "ahs" of pleasure as the latest equipment in the home and industrial arts departments was displayed. New courses such as housing and home management, home design, metals, and architectural drawing have also been added in these two areas since Nilehi's first opening twenty years ago. These courses, covering a broad range of interests and abilities, serve to distinct advantage in a profession, in homemaking, or as an enjoyable hobby.

German I students Dale Johnston, Renata Jaeger, and Lyle Ransom find that the land of the Rhine combines past and present traditions and customs.

STUDY OF FOREIGN LANGUAGE BROADENS STUDENTS' CULTURAL HORIZONS

Since its inception in 1939, the foreign language department has attempted to keep pace with the needs created by this world of shrinking horizons and contracting boundaries. Classes in French, Spanish, Latin, and German have been instituted in which students pursue the language of their choice beyond the two years usually required for college entrance. These third and fourth years of study take them into more advanced and representative literature. This year devices such as the tape recorder were used in workshops designed to acquaint the student with the spoken language. Students now may study the language at a level useful in a career or for their own enjoyment and appreciation of another culture's literature and customs.

Judy Sheldon and Jeff Mantell use a tape recorder to help them improve their proficiency in Latin I, while Larry Lissner examines a Roman catapult.

Third-year French students Ruth Caplan, Dennis Dibos, and Sandy Brumley study France in its role as a European culture center.

BACH
Three-Part Inventions

Members of Girls' Glee Club Sue Alton, Marilyn Elya, Dolores Sieber, Karen Dare, Jean Wedge, and Jerri-Rae Hook listen as Sue Faust plays a selection by Bach.

Tom Conners and Pam Bradley practice hand movements and facial expressions in correlation with their Drama II course as Sue Levin evaluates them. Marilyn Herman, Judy DuBonn, and Rodney Swanson assume English mannerisms in preparation for their parts.

CULTURAL COURSES COMPOSE PART OF CURRICULUM

While strictly academic courses provide a solid educational background, the cultural courses offered at Niles help establish an understanding and an appreciation for beauty in the fields of music, drama, and art. An actual drama course was introduced into the curriculum this fall to promote dramatic criticism and evaluation of theatrical production. In the field of music, eight teachers now handle the responsibility held by one in 1939, and the number of rooms used has increased from one to five. In addition to merely learning notes, the band, orchestra, glee clubs, and choir also study vocal and instrumental techniques. The desire of students to create and study art in its various forms promoted a two-fold expansion in the number of rooms and teachers in the art department. These three departments, then, have combined to extend the tradition of culture in the Nilehi curriculum.

Saxophonists Ron Calattier, Jeannette Artelt, and Jim Mickalay and trumpet players Glenn Rosenthal, Jim Swinger, and Ed Nadler, rehearse "Till There Was You" from this year's musicale, "Off Camera."

Creating a "thing of beauty" involves taking raw clay, shaping it, and then baking it in a kiln. Students Sharon Rakos, Arnold Green, Susan Osborn, Marilyn Hirsch, and Mary Jane Aiello work on various stages of this process.

STUDENT COUNCIL EXCHANGE STUDENT

Besides being the students' voice in matters such as assigning definite parking spaces for students and eleminating a troublesome traffic problem, the East Division Council, sponsored by Mr. Hallberg, has been busy with activities which will become traditions to be looked upon with pride by Nilehiers years from now. The Homecoming parade, floats, and the election of our second Homecoming Queen were Council-sponsored. Then, polls were taken to see how these events could be improved in coming years. The first foreign exchange student, Giuseppe Tagliabue, better known as "Joe", was brought here by last year's West Division Council, working through the American Field Service. Those traditional "little black books" were no longer needed when the Council published a revised and improved Student Directory.

Other projects included adopting Niles' second Korean war orphan, Yang Hong Shik, opening a well-equipped school store, and sponsoring a student lounge in the Assembly Room, complete with ping-pong table and juke box. When students look back over the history of Nilehi, they will see that this year marked both the beginning and the continuation of many traditions.

A bigger and better Homecoming was one of Student Council East's many projects. Back Row: B. Levin, I. Tivin, R. Raben, R. Kroon, P. Baran, S. Best, S. Hyman, R. Thomas, I. Monarch, D. BRINGS FOREIGN TO NILEHI

As the first governing body of the new school, the West Division Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Bost, has the important job of helping link Niles West to Niles East with traditions which truly belong to both. In their first project, the Magazine Drive, Council members raised $903.00 to help support various West Division activities. They also contributed $386.00 to the United Fund Drive and raised money to aid victims of the disastrous Our Lady of the Angels School fire.

Other Council projects included providing guides for the Dedication Service of the west campus, sponsoring buses to "away" football games, buying furniture for the patio, and selling student directories. They made an unusual record in this sale by selling 600 directories in one day. They also set up a unique school store in the form of vending machines which supply all the students' needs.

One of the most important projects of this group was sponsoring the Student Lounge. Open to students with a high grade average, the Lounge features a coke machine and piped-in music. Scholars who take advantage of this privilege during their study halls hope that this will become one of the school's Council-sponsored traditions.

West Division officers Ray Berens (President), Dave Recher (Treasurer), and Rosanne Schiff (Secretary) carry out many of the responsibilities of Student Council.

S. S. O. ORGANIZES AN HONOR STUDY HALL

Although not an old tradition, the SSO (Student Service Organization) has already established itself as an integral and necessary part of Nilehi. This program gives our students the opportunity of accepting numerous responsibilities. Consisting of three main divisions; Student Supervised Study Halls (SSSH), Student Service Monitors (SSM), and Special Service Division (SSD), this large organization handles many tasks once administered by the faculty. Under the leadership of Jim Tansor, the three hundred officers of SSO have worked effectively and efficiently throughout the year.

SSSH has expanded from last year's eleven daily study halls to the present total of thirty-five, and has added a new and significant feature, an Honor Study Hall. Polls taken in study halls during the fall semester showed the success of the organization, as 91% of the students endorsed the plan with only 9% preferring faculty supervision.

Keeping corridors orderly and quiet has been the job of capable SSM members. Monitors are assigned posts by the supervisors of each period. In order to make sure that monitors are doing their jobs well, a system of boner and bouquet sheets has been adopted. If a student gets by the watchful eyes of the monitor, the student will present the unlucky monitor with a token of his neglect — the boner sheet. If he does his job well, he is awarded with a bouquet sheet.

The youngest of the division of SSO, SSD, has grown in importance since its beginning last year. Students in this group are responsible for checking locks on the corridor lockers and keeping attendance records in the library.

These three divisions which make up one of the busiest and largest organizations at Nilehi carry on traditions of service and leadership.

'59 REFLECTIONS COMMEMORATES TWENTY YEARS OF TRADITION

Twenty years ago Niles Township opened the doors of a new high school to 600 students. The bricks were bare; newly planted trees lined the campus; grass was in a seedling state. The townspeople looked with pride on the hugh yellow structure. This year, because the 600 are now 3400, Niles Township witnessed the opening of another building — again, bare bricks, saplings, and seeded grass. And with the rapid growth of the student body has come the growth of traditions in friendship, service, leadership, justice, and knowledge. The uniting force of the two divisions lies in these cherished traditions and the vigorous spirit behind them.

A modern building completed on the twentieth anniversary of the old, and a firm foundation of tradition as the linking unit, formed a natural theme for the '59 Yearbook. Under the guidance of Miss Jackson and with the assistance of Mr. Abram's sophomore staff, the general staff developed the book around this theme, and the Senior Section under Mr. Schrock processed the senior pictures.

Twenty years of progress are compiled in Reflections '59, Nile's twentieth yearbook.

Senior Staff members Linda Hubbard (Activities), Barbara Krumsieg (Faculty, Portraits), Bill McDowell, Ron Krischke (Sports), Marilyn Barnett (Special Events), Lee Isel (Activities), and Mark Johnson study samples of cover colors and textures.

The newly organized sophomore staff proved a great help in the idenification of West Division pictures and in providing information on West clubs. Members are Trudy Saunders, Mary Ann Freda, Steve Bookchester, Ken Norgan, Marilyn Hirsch, Ken Williams, and Carol Martin.

Scheduling senior pictures, checking names, and processing activity sheets are vital responsibilities of the Senior Section. Back Row: B. Barabas (Senior co-chairman), B. NILEHILITE IS TRADITIONAL "FREE PRESS" IN ACTION

The presses start to roll. Everybody on the staff gives a sigh of relief. Yes, they've done it again—the Nilehilite will come out Friday as scheduled. Soon the readers will be scanning the pages, perhaps not realizing all the work that was needed to give them their paper.

What DO you need? First of all, there must be a staff well grounded in journalistic principles, who know everything from copy reading symbols to headline types. Then someone must oversee the work, and Mr. Eberhardt capably performs this task. News is needed, and since the 13 staff members can't be everywhere at once, additional reporters are required. Serving that purpose are the journalism students, who, besides aiding the Nilehilite staff, are gaining valuable experience. These cub reporters are assigned various people in the school to cover as their "beat" sources. After reporting their findings, they are given stories to write. There is a deadline to meet! Leads are run down, more information is collected, stories are written and rewritten, and the finished work is turned in for approval. The staff copyreads and edits the stories, writes the headlines, makes the page layout, and writes cutlines. The final check is made; the final "OK" is given. The presses start to roll.

Staff members each do a specialized job in getting the Nilehilite to press. Back Row: J. Doniger (Cartoonist), M. Ruby (Assistant Sports Editor), J. Faust (Picture Editor), T. Masters and M. WRITING CLUBS GIVE STUDENTS OUTLET FOR EXPRESSION

Man's traditional desire to express himself creatively has found an outlet at Nilehi and is encouraged by the East Division Golden Galleon Guild sponsored by Mrs. Rice and its West Division counterpart, Silver Clipper, which has Mr. Gragg as its sponsor. Students qualify for membership in the Guild or Clipper if manuscripts they enter are accepted for publication in the annual literary magazine and if the students meet standards set by the administration. New members are invited to a banquet held in June, where they receive their magazines and the special thrill of seeing their names and "masterpieces" in print.

During the year, Golden Galleon sold return address labels to finance the magazine. Both the Galleon and Clipper evaluated manuscripts submitted by hopeful students and admitted associate members who are seniors selected to participate in all activities except the grading of entries. It wasn't all work and no play, however, for both clubs had their social side. Golden Galleon entertained parents at a fall tea held in the West Division Student Lounge, gave several parties, and held an initiation for associates, presided over by the "High Inquisitor." East and West Division students attended the June banquet to install new members.

Silver Clipper, an outgrowth of Golden Galleon, judges entries on the frosh-soph level. Back Row: Mr. Gragg (Sponsor), J. Kaplan, D. Woywot, D. Van, D. Simons. First Row: J. Bloch, S. Beauchamp, D. Goss, M. Voss, H. Seither, A. Kennedy, E. Imber, K. Osney.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY RECOGNIZES EXCELLENCE

The athlete becomes captain; the active member is elected president of his organization; the "brain" receives a scholarship. All these are deserved rewards for achievement in those areas. The highest of all recognitions, however, is induction into the National Honor Society, a recognition of excellence in four areas—knowledge, service, leadership, and character. Juniors and seniors with a "B" average are eligible for membership, and the final choice of three percent of the juniors and six percent of the seniors is made by the faculty on the basis of these qualities.

At this year's ceremony, marked by the traditional red roses and gold pins, twenty-three seniors and twenty-eight juniors raised their lighted candles and pledged their belief in character as the foundation of life; in scholarship as the means to achievement; in leadership as a worthy aim; and in service as the object and end of living.

Twenty-eight juniors and twenty-three seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society, the highest honor on the high-school level. Back Row: M. Zimberoff, B. Roos, R. Greenman, A. FORMAL INDUCTION HIGHLIGHTS HI-Y ACTIVITIES

The Hi-Y Club at Niles continued its tradition of service to the school and the community in the 1958-1959 school year. Two of its projects, the Hi-Y Scholarship, awarded to a deserving senior, and the Hi-Y Citizenship Award, given last year to Karen Rosenquist and Ron Henrici, kept the boys busy washing cars and checking coats. Hi-Y developes future leaders as well as men, and this year Lance Lindquist, President of the East Hi-Y Club, served as Vice President of the Metropolitan Hi-Y Council.

Throughout the year an excellent variety of programs was presented. These included the celebrated news commentator Alex Dreier with movies of his trip to Russia, a Chicago area Hi-Y Winter Retreat at Camp MacClean, near Burlington, Wisconsin, and the premiere of a color film on the launching of the Vanguard Satellite. The West Division Club presented their first Dads and Lads Banquet March 10, and the eleventh annual banquet of the East Hi-Y was held the following week. This year the West Club also had a basketball league with four teams competing for the championship.

At the Formal Induction Service of the East Hi-Y Club, old members as well as new faced the large white cross bordered by the red triangle and pledged themselves "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character."

Plans for future activities of the West Hi-Y Club are discussed by members. Standing: Jim Puccinelli, Ken Feldman, Mitch Melamed, Harold Norris. Seated: Larry Fisher (President), Don Pflieger (Secretary), Gene Schaeffer (Vice President), Bruce Dilg (Treasurer), Jim Slack (Sargeant at Arms), Ken Matzick (Chaplain).

Gold Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a fun and filling pot-luck dinner for the East Tri-Hi-Ys and Hi-Y. Officers of the Gold Club are Ginger Golden (Chaplain), Susan Getman (Treasurer), Marilyn Barnett (Secretary), Lydia Riccardi (Vice-President), and Judy DuBonn (President).

The Blue Tri-Hi-Y presented a program at which Officer Kruger spoke on juvenile delinquency. Blue Club officers are Lynn Eggers (Chaplain), Noel Ostrom (Secretary), Jackie Hillstrand (Vice-President), and Carol Dankowski (President).

A spring and summer fashion show highlighted Red Tri-Hi-Y's activities for the season. Officers of the Red Club are Shelby Reading (Chaplain), Carol Stoner (Treasurer), Bonnie Stevens (Vice-President), Joyce Gertler (President), and Carol Stern (Secretary).

One of White Tri-Hi-Y's service projects was a visit to St. Hedwig's Orphanage at Christmas. White Club officers are Nancy McAvoy (President), Karen Johnson (Vice-President), Beverly Laing (Secretary), and Shirley Ferguson (Treasurer).

TRI-HI-Y PROMOTES HIGH STANDARDS OF CHRISTIAN CHARACTER

Tri-Ed, a West Tri-Hi-Y, exemplified the ideals and purpose of Tri-Hi-Ys at a Mother-Daughter banquet. Officers of Tri-Ed are Liz Stapelfeld (President), Pat Rice (Vice-President), Sandy Menconi, Joyce Zolezzi (Treasurer), Karen Vedder (Chaplain), Marilyn Gooding, and Judy Sholin (Secretary).

Service projects, social functions, and other activities both physical and spiritual are incorporated in Tri-Hi-Ys' busy schedules.

All four East Division Tri-Hi-Ys—Gold, Blue, Red, and White Clubs—enjoyed the dreamy summer fashions from Saks Fifth Avenue, held a pot-luck supper followed by a panel discussion on the "University of Good Government," and had a hearty "cook-out" at the beautiful new Y.M.C.A. building. Individual projects included visiting St. Hedwig's Home, studying the symbolism of different religions, acquiring principles of poise and etiquette from a Patricia Steven's model, and making pastel colored teddy bears for orphans.

The West Division Tri-Hi-Y divided into Selin and Tri-Ed this year. Selin gave a Valentine Dance, "Cupid's Caper," and Tri-Ed held a Mother-Daughter Banquet. Together they built a Homecoming float, a beaver exclaiming "Let's paddle 'em."

TWO DEBATERS WIN NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE DEGREE OF DISTINCTION

The Niles varsity debate team has a growing reputation due to the diligence of its members, who searched through old books and studied into the early morning hours to prepare themselves for the meets. The topic which necessitated these efforts was "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the British system of education." Under the supervision of Dr. Betts, the varsity team compiled a record of thirty wins and thirty-four losses, and at an important meet at Navy Pier Niles won five matches and lost one, placing fourth out of twenty-four teams. The outstanding debators were Alan Birholtz, who won fifteen out of seventeen debates, and Aaron Bloch and Stan Berman, who received the Degree of Distinction from the National Forensic League.

The promising debators of the West Division, coached by Mr. Mattka, finished with a record of twenty-eight wins and twenty-two losses. Outstanding in this group were Bob Sachoff and Dave Savner, each of whom won ten out of thirteen debates.

UNION BOARD SPONSORS ITS FIRST DANCE

The greatest promoter of the spirit of friendship at Niles is the Student Union Board. The nine unions held at the West Division this year offered many new attractions, the most outstanding being a cinemascope screen on which current movies were shown. Dancing, games, and refreshments were other enjoyable features planned and monitored by thirty senior members who dressed as horrible monsters, clowns, and beachcombers.

The Candlelight Ball, the first Union sponsored dance, was held in the new building. Tall, poinsettia decked candles surrounded by angel hair rose from the center of the dance floor, and punch and cookies were served in the lounge where Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus greeted couples by the old fashioned Christmas tree.

Students swing into the first round of a union dance contest.

A cosmopolitan air is provided by objects and art works from various countries. Members of the West Division combined Foreign Language Clubs are B. Katz, J. Kipperman, M. Honig, L. Lissner. Seated: F. Yesnick, J. Kroon, M. Herzon, B Mark, N. Muth (Vice-President), K. Norgan (President), R. Schiff (Secretary), F. Harris.

LANGUAGE STUDENTS STUDY CULTURE OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Through the foreign language clubs of both divisions, students participate in interesting activities that enlarge their understanding of the people, customs, and ways of life in other lands. In the West Division, students of four languages—French, German, Latin, and Spanish—meet as the Foreign Language Club, the largest club in that division. Sending Care packages to Europe and helping to finance the foreign exchange student program are only a few of the accomplishments of this active group.

For students of the East Division, the French Club, German Club, Latin Club, and Spanish Club offer varied and unique activities. Where but at the Latin Club's banquet could one walk into the past to dine in glorious Roman style in honor of Caesar? Spanish Club members did not miss their share of excitement, either, when they visited Cafe Axteca to hear Spanish songs and rhythms, or broke a pinata at Christmas time. French Club members had a special treat when Gauguin's exhibit opened at the Art Institute, and France's art heritage became more meaningful to them. In both divisions, the language clubs help bridge the "culture barrier."

Gathered around a Roman garden pool at the Latin Banquet are Barbara Barbaras, Kay Naylor, Lee Isel, Martin Zimberoff, Sam Armato, Larry Misse, Arlene Pfaff, and Linda Hubbard.

Pins and Pans Club gives girls who are interested in domestic arts a chance to improve their skills and share their ideas with others. Officers Kay Mahoney (Refreshments Chairman), Heather Wallace (Secretary-Treasurer), Irene Cosmos (Publicity Chairman), Cynthia Weber (Ways and Means Chairman), Mary Jane Biesman (Vice-President), and Diane Singer (President) discuss plans for the near and "not so near" future.

West Division girls, too, prepare themselves for their future as homemakers. Back Row: J. Lehman, P. Kuznick, J. Stille, N. Scott. Second Row: D. White, J. Johnson, B. Melehes. First Row: N. Andrews, D. Hachmeister watch as A. Juern (President) leafs through a homemaking magazine.

Officers of the 100% Club practice those skills which will be so important when they become "full-fledged" secretaries. Back Row: Bronna Medwed (Treasurer), Darlene Stollstorf (Editor), Lynn Anderson (Sales Manager). First Row: Linda Weinberg (President), Lynn Karzen (Secretary), and Diane Singer (Vice-President).

The objectives of Teachers of Tomorrow are to explore the fields of teaching and teachers' education through books, field trips, and speakers. Officers Judy Matter (Treasurer), Gerda Halbreich (Vice-President), Holly Freeman (Secretary), and Bonnie Martin (President), are planning a trip to a teachers' college.

Present teachers talk on their occupations at West Division Future Teachers of America Club meetings. Outlining the next meeting are Yvette LeMieux (Secretary), Nancy Hanelin (Treasurer), Linda Kaufman, Sandy Goldstein (President). Standing: Jill Rubin and Nina Freed.

STUDENTS FOR FUTURE

Future Nurses Club officers Sue Ohren (Corresponding Secretary), Beverly Laing (Secretary), Gladyce Lindberg (Vice-President), and members Barbara Weichmann and Carol Luanne Dilg watch Sharon Hunt (President) as she points to the goal of every future nurse — the white cap.

Brenda Silverman (Treasurer), Ellen Winer (Secretary), Jo Ellen Pfeiffer, Pat Hillsberg (Corresponding Secretary), Tammy Frank, and Mary O'Donnell practice some of the techniques they hope to put into practice someday, while Mrs. Springer, R.N., looks on.

SERVICE IS AN ACTIVE

Running errands for busy administrators, answering the phone, checking out library books, and keeping the cafeteria neat and in order are all jobs taken on voluntarily by the Nilehi students who want to serve their school. The only prerequisites are willingness and an hour a day to spend alphabetizing schedule cards, collecting attendance slips, or checking cafeteria seating.

THESPIANS AND SPOTLIGHTERS STUDY DRAMATIC TECHNIQUES

Each year young "hopefuls" begin their school careers by becoming Spotlighters, and some later achieve the distinction of being a Thespian when they have earned ten points by working 100 hours on dramatic productions. Students learn and practice the techniques of acting, applying stage make-up, handling props, and directing plays, They spend long hours pounding flats, painting scenery, making costumes, and rehearsing parts for the three annual plays that these groups present. But the production of a play isn't all work—it is friendship and co-operation, the unequaled excitement of an opening night, and the satisfaction of a job well done.

This year's plays, a fantasy and two comedies, were directed by Miss Stemp and Miss Chapman. "Arsenic and Old Lace" was handsomely presented by the Spotlighters on May 1. All the excitement and color of a Broadway hit came to Nilehi with the gala January 29 premier of "Mrs. McThing" and the spring production, "Cheaper by the Dozen," both staged in the new auditorium. "There's no business like show business" as far as Nilehi's young "dramatists" are concerned.

NILEHI STUDENTS BUILD STRONG MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Niles Township concert band, under the direction of Mr. Provost and Mr. Groeling, highlighted one of its most successful seasons with the traditional concert on April 26. Each day, outstanding freshmen and sophomore musicians came by bus from the West Division, and the full seventy-piece band held its hour and a half rehearsal.

After dazzling the stands with precision routines at football games, and, on one occasion, throwing hula hoops into the stadium, the band went on to play at basketball games and pep assemblies. Outside of school, the band's busy schedule included playing at the West Division auditorium on Teachers' Institute Day, and touring the neighboring grammar schools.

The intermediate and cadet bands in the West Division provide the opportunity for beginners to acquire invaluable playing experience before becoming members of concert band.

"Off Camera" was the name of the music department's spectacular production this year, performed on April 17 and 18. Rehearsing during and after school hours were the four girls' glee clubs, the boys' glee club, choir, and the orchestra, all under the direction of Mr. McGee and Mr. Auge. The orchestra played for the above-mentioned programs, and, with the Barbershoppers, performed at many grammar schools. These musical groups also presented the traditional Christmas Festival, December 14, and the May Festival, May 22.

Choral groups, also, draw great numbers of students. The Barbershoppers and Vivace, both highly selective groups, have been in existence, and very active for seven years. Vivace this year has had the experience of giving a concert in Orchestra Hall, and the thrill of travelling to Dallas for the Kiwanis International Convention.

BEST SEASONS

IN NILEHI HISTORY . . . GROUNDWORK FOR THE FUTURE

Anticipating the track season, sprinter-hurdlers Ed Owen and Bill Hess sharpen up their hedge-hopping abilities.

Peppy varsity cheerleaders Carol Peterson, Barbara DeMano, Anita Musgrave, Susie Stockmar, Marilyn Barnett, Marilyn Holtz, Natalie Johnson, and Ginger Golden are proud of the varsity football team who took third place in the Suburban League.

"We've got the pep, steam, fight, team!" say sophomore cheerleaders Jay Miller, Wendy Belgarbo, Karen Stryker, and Donna Miller, and freshman cheerleaders Kathy Stockmar, Donna Naylor, Gerri Rae Hook, and Susan Bourgerie.

"Yea, Varsity!" cry senior varsity cheerleaders Nat Johnson, Susie Stockmar, Marilyn Barnett, and Ginger Golden.

YEAAAA! NILES

"Let's have some racket, let's have some noise!" shout members of Nilehi's newly formed Racket Squad. This spirited group of seniors and second semester juniors has attended all football, basketball, and home baseball games. Throughout the year their efforts have succeeded in improving school spirit and boosting team morale. Racket Squad members have participated in many activities, from sponsoring buses to out-of-town games to putting on skits at pep assemblies. The development of a winning team is greatly assisted by the complete support of the student body, and it is the eight varsity and four sophomore cheerleaders and the Racket Squad who inspire the crowd to unite, shouting "We're from Niles, couldn't be prouder!"

The Twirlers presented half-time entertainment at football games. They are Sherry Otto, Irene Freske, Diane Meinke, Barbara Henricho, Judy Appleton, Sharon Brei, Barbara Gibson, and Ruth Sack.

By its able and enthusiastic leadership, Racket Squad has added pep to our games. Left to Right, Back Row: Mr. Scherb, B. Roos, L. Schwartz, J. Piell, D. Gooze, R. Levin, R. Raben, R. TROJANS HAVE BEST SEASON EVER

Line Coach Nick Odlivak flanks Head Coach Mike Basrak with Backfield Coach Bob Frala and End Coach Billy Schnurr, all showing their satisfaction at the best season the Trojans ever had.

With Mark Johnson and Bill Tomsik coming upfield and Bill Reading coming to the aid of Les Lange, Barry Mink, rated the team's "Most Valuable Player," sets out for a touchdown against Highland Park. This was the first home game win for the Trojans, who whipped the Giants 26-13.

Aided by the perfectly timed blocks of Mike Magit and Bruce Herkert, Les Berens sweeps around end for a substantial gain against Proviso, the league champions.

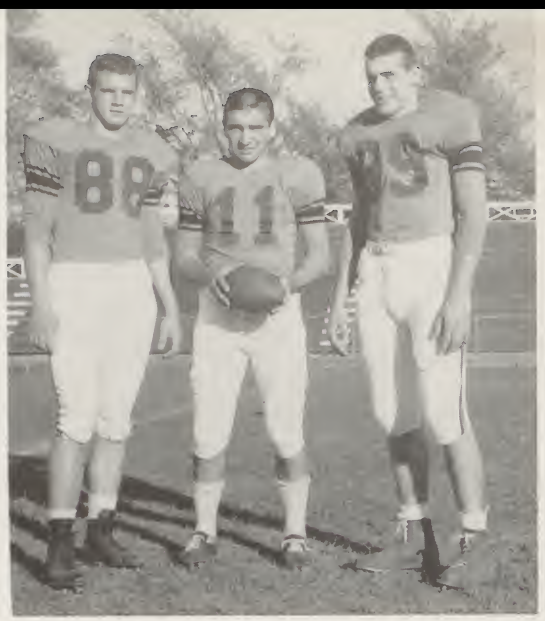
The first Homecoming game win, the first home win, the best team record ever, all combined with the defeat of our arch-rivals New Trier made up the season that will be remembered in the minds of Niles students for a long time to come. The offensive and defensive teams combined their efforts this year to come out in the first division with a five wins and three losses record. The season started and ended at a fast pace with the first game against Crystal Lake ending 33-13. The last game which was against the New Trier Indians brought an end to the jinx that has plagued Niles for many a year and the final score of Niles 13 and New Trier 7 brought a wonderful season to a close. Ron Henrici, Barry Mink and Bill McGrath made first All-Suburban honors. Ron Henrici also went on to be distinguished as Niles' first All-Stater. Also walking off with All-Suburban League honors were Kirk Hopper, Mark Johnson, Bill Tomsik, Bruce Herkert, Mike Magit, Bill Maryanski, Paul Heinze, Les Berens, George Willard, Jim Dahlman, and Les Lange. With 17 lettermen returning next year the team will, with the help of a strong Sophomore squad, once again be in hot pursuit of the Suburban League title.

Varsity Football
The first string offensive team takes the stance that brought them their first home league victory in many years. Backfield: L. Berens, B. Klingensmith, G. Willard, B. Mink. Linemen: R. Henrici, B. McGrath, M. Magit, M. Johnson, B. Herkert, B. Reading, K. Hopper.

The main reason for the Trojan's two shutout games and the "dike" that stopped the Green Wave of New Trier is the first defensive team. Backfield: K. Hoppe, L. Lange, B. Maryanski, L. Engstrom, J. Dahlman, R. Pinkowski. Linemen: B. Tomsik, P. Heinze, J. France, E. Mikkelsen, D. Corr.



Three of the best football players that Niles has ever had are the Varsity captains. Leading the squad to the greatest height ever attained by Niles were Bill McGrath, Barry Mink, and Ron Henrici, all of whom shared All-Suburban League honors.

Once again Barry Mink proves, with the help of Bob Klingensmith that the Trojan spirit never fails, even in face of defeat. Niles dropped this tough one to the Proviso Pirates 13-28.

Running the kickoff return are Barry Mink and Kirk Hopper, against the Highland Park Giants. It was in this game that the Trojans staged a terrific come-back, winning the game after a half-time score of H P 13-Niles 0.

The scene has changed. With George Willard, Bill McGrath, and Bill Reading looking on, Ron Henrici, the Trojans' first All-State football player, proves that it takes more than two Evanston men to bring him down. Niles beat Evanston 14-0

Larry Mills makes a short gain in the game against Highland Park. These short gains lengthened into sustained drives that brought a 13 to 6 victory for the Trojans.

WEST DIVISION DRILLS FOR NEXT YEAR'S VARSITY

The sophomores showed promise of developing a winning technique, and compiled a record of 3 wins and 4 losses. The expert coaching of Mr. Coyer, Mr. Fabri, and Mr. Skuban paid off with victories against Crystal Lake and Highland Park. The team made good showings against Evanston and Oak Park, but could not gain victories. After being shut out by Morton, the sophomores rebounded with a smashing victory over Proviso. These players, if they continue to display their hustle and ability, will undoubtedly prove to be valuable additions to the varsity next year.

FROSH FINISH STRONG WITH TWO VICTORIES

The first year of high school football was an important one for these freshmen and they rose to the occasion by winning four games and losing three against their powerful Suburban League opponents. The team's potential is indicated by their 125 point season, including a startling 40-0 romp over Waukegan, as compared to the opponent's 84 points. Every boy received the chance to display his skills in competition, either on the A team, coached by Mr. Brown, or on Mr. Heiniger's B team, which posted a 1-5 record.

Freshmen kick off to begin the second half of the New Trier game.

Mr. Harmon discusses with Bill Nack and John McGinnis the pace to set for the coming race.

HARRIERS FINISH BEST SEASON

This year's cross country team finished the season with four wins and four losses. This was the best record ever turned in by a Nilehi cross country team. After whipping Highland Park in the opening meet, the Harriers lost to Glenbrook in the only non-conference meet. The team then proceeded to beat Evanston, Proviso, and New Trier during the course of the eight meet season. The team finished fifth in the Suburban League meet. Another record fell, as Bill Nack ran the two miles in 9:49 minutes setting a new school record. The team's success this year was to a large extent due to four junior runners, and with their return next year the outlook is good.

Height, strength and accuracy are just a few of the attributes brought to the Varsity squad by its captain, Ron Henrici. With determination Ron sinks two points against Highland Park.

'55 RECORD

Working into a screen set up by Bill Reading, Ron Lis heads for an opening in the Highland Park team.

A season's training under a new coach, Mr. Fabri, paid off this year and brought to the varsity team the best record since the Class of 1955. Starting out the season in stride by taking their first game against Leyden, 47-41, a jinx hit the Trojans and stayed with them for the next eight games. Shaking off this losing streak, the varsity five triumphed over Oak Park (58-51) and our arch-rivals New Trier (52-50). Through the rest of the season the squad also beat Evanston, Proviso, and Palatine. With four returning lettermen and fine, aggressive sophomores replacing our graduating seniors, hopes are high for an excellent winning combination next year.

Closely guarded Ron Henrici attempts a one-handed push shot from the edge of the free throw line.

Bill Reading stretches full length, rebounds and then scores against the Palatine Five. Niles swamped Palatine 59-22.

A fight for the ball and who's in the middle but Ron Henrici, spark plug and captain of the Trojan team.

The team's leading scorer, Ron Lis, moves the ball swiftly and accurately down court for another basket against Highland Park.

SOPHOMORES GAIN EXPERIENCE IN SUBURBAN LEAGUE PLAY

Competing in one of the state's top leagues, the sophomore team put together a winning combination in four of their games. Plagued by bad breaks and trying to overcome the anxieties of playing before large crowds, the sophs ended the season with a 4-14 record. However, eight games were lost by six points or less, indicating the team's true ability. With the aggressiveness these boys have displayed, they should be ready for play next year. A little experience goes a long way, and several of them will be welcome additions to the varsity squad.

J. V. AND FROSH TRAIN FOR VARSITY

The Junior Varsity finished the season with a record of one win and eleven losses, but had a much better team than their record might indicate. The JV's couldn't score at the crucial points in games and repeatedly lost by narrow margins. This was exceptionally true in the games with Oak Park, New Trier, and Morton—all were lost by no more than five points. The leading scorer was Mark Peppercorn, who averaged over ten points a game. In their one win of the season, the JV's, sparked by Peppercorn's fifteen points, edged their arch-rival New Trier by a score of 50-49.

The Freshmen compiled a record of eight wins and six losses, by far the best among the Nilehi basketball teams. Leading scorers on the squad coached by Mr. Bauer and Mr. Engle were Rick Artwick and Ken Borcia. Beginning the season with a 51-31 victory over Leyden, the frost kept a clean record with victories over Oak Park, New Trier, and Evanston. After handing Proviso West a 51-32 defeat, they scored victories against Highland Park, Waukegan, and Proviso. There isn't any doubt that these boys will become part of a successful future varsity squad.

TANKSTERS BREAK FIVE RECORDS

The tanksters led by their new coach, Don Larson, swam their way into a very respectable season's record of nine wins and seven losses. During the course of the season five school records were broken, two of them by the same swimmer, Raul Martin. With five lettermen returning and three of them record holders next season should be more successful than this one.

The Frosh-Soph team wasn't quite as successful but they gained in the experience necessary to qualify them for a berth on a varsity team. They finished the season with a record of four wins, nine losses, and one tie.

KUEHN TAKES STATE, SOPHS GO UNDEFEATED

The growth of wrestling's popularity this year was a result of two superb teams. The varsity finished the season with a record of nine wins, five losses, and one tie in Suburban League competition. The undefeated Frosh-Soph team won seventeen straight meets, undisputably clinching first place in the Suburban League.

Individual performances were as outstanding as the fine team showings. Captain Bill McGrath finished the regular season undefeated, with only one tie. His only loss was by a referee's decision in the State quarterfinals at Arlington. The highlight of the season, however, was Glen Kuehn's showing in the State Finals. Kuehn became the first Nilehi grappler to win a state wrestling championship. Wrestling at 127 pounds, he pinned six men and went into overtime once enroute to becoming the best wrestler in the state in his weight class.

The outlook for next year is equally as good, as there are five lettermen who will be back for two more seasons.

GYMNASTIC TEAM STARTS NEW TRADITION

The newly formed gymnastic team, composed of freshmen and sophomores, began a new tradition at Niles. Although the team competed very little with other schools, interest ran high, and the work outs were rewarded with performances at various basketball games, including the N-Club game. Competing in the trampoline, high bar, parallel bars, horse, and tumbling events, however, the team did participate in two dual meets against Rich Township and York Township, and in two invitational meets. Now that the boys have become familiar with the sport and learned the basic fundamentals, the outlook for a successful season next year is good.

SIX RETURNING LETTERMEN BOLSTER '58 STATE FINALISTS

The varsity baseball team, coached by Mr. Phipps, trying to equal and possibly surpass their performance of last year, fielded a team built around 6 returning lettermen: Ron Lis, Ron Henrici, Barry Mink, Dave Kloepfer, Tom Dobrowlski, and Bill Maryanski.

Despite this strength, Maine Township, the team that dashed our hopes for a state championship last year, cast a dismal setting by defeating the Trojans in our opening game by a score of 5-2.

For the Trojans, the high points of the early season were the defeats of New Trier and Evanston in doubleheaders (6-1, 5-0, and 5-4, 10-8). These victories, made possible through the excellent pitching of Tom Dobrowlski and Fred Benjamin, equalled the phenomenal doubleheader victory against Evanston pitched by Mike Hirschtich.

The Trojans once again began the long trek to the state tournament as they defeated Notre Dame High School in the first game of the playoffs. The fine pitching of Mike Hirschtich and the powerful hitting of Ron Henrici paved the was for the 3-1 victory as the Trojans overtook a 1-0 deficit. It looked like all our power hitting was going to waste as the excellent fielders from Notre Dame continually speared long drives off Trojan bats until Ron Henrici finally broke the ice with a 380-foot line shot home run. The Notre Dame Dons were not to be denied as they threatened in the seventh (last) inning. With two on and two out their last hope hit a towering drive into deep centerfield that was labelled for a home run, but Barry Mink, running hard with his back to the infield, made a perfect one handed catch to end the game.

Sennett Tzinberg stretches for a low throw from third for a putout.

FROSH-SOPH PLANS– TROJANS A STATE POWER IN '61 AND '62

Playing high school baseball in the Suburban League gaining valuable experience, and winning that "special game" are all a part of the baseball season that these Frosh won't soon forget. Playing baseball at Niles Township High School carries much responsibility along with it, since Nilehi has emerged as one of the state powers in the last few years, and these boys know that the experience that they gain today playing in a Frosh game will be put to the test in a few years — perhaps on a baseball diamond at Peoria, playing for the state crown.

This hustling team, coached by Mr. Schnurr, has shown its potential in three league wins. Although boasting no individual stars as yet, the team has the teamwork and the drive of a winning team that will be gratefully received in two or three years.

Winning four games in a row has made the Sophomore team a very happy one. Coached by Mr. Coyer, the sophs scored 37 runs in these games against 7 opposing runs. Although getting off to a slow start, the team has compiled a total record of 6-5 including a 0-0 tie with Arlington. Most notable of these games were the 7-1 win over Oak Park and the 5-1 decision against Highland Park, both won by the fine pitching of Paul Williams. The games were well pitched, but two straight games of errorless baseball, turned in by the sophs, paved the way for these victories. The depth of this team and their offensive power promises a winning record for the sophs in '59.

ZIMBEROFF AND GOLDMAN SPARK CINDERMEN

Although handicapped by a lack of proper training facilities, the varsity track team has achieved moderate success against the stiff competition of early season meets. Outstanding among the seniors is Bill Nack, who, in this his first year as a trackman, missed qualifying for the state meet by just .2 second in the half-mile run!

The frosh-soph squad, however, sparked by Jerry Zimberoff, who is considered to be one of the finest freshman trackmen in the state, and Paul Goldman, considered to be one of the three best sophomore hurdlers in the state, has literally swept the league. Zimberoff, who runs almost anything but specializes in the 440, 220, and 100 yard dash, turned in a 54:5 quarter the first time he ran the 440 in league competition! Goldman, who to date is only .2 second off the school record for the low hurdles, has already broad-jumped 19 feet and high-jumped 5'10"!

To date, the most memorable victories of the season were scored at the Elmwood Park-Fenton meet, in which both Zimberoff and Goldman competed on the varsity level. Zimberoff won the 440 and aided in the mile relay, while Goldman took four varsity firsts: low hurdles, high hurdles, broad jump and high jump! Coaches Harmon, Frala, and Lyerla all predict the shattering of a host of school records by these boys. Forecasted, too, for 1961, is the best track team in Nilehi history and one of the best in the state.

RACKETMEN REPORT: FIVE SHUTOUTS IN EIGHT MATCHES!

Although our Nilehi racketmen lost their league opener to New Trier by a heart breaking 2-3 score, the fact that they did so well against these traditionally superb opponents gave promise of an outstanding season to come. And an outstanding season it has been, with our men racking up six victories against only one loss, that to Oak Park, with five of the six victories being 5-0 whitewashes, three in Suburban League play: Waukegan, Proviso, and Morton. Coach Markus' formula for success has been the combination of two returning lettermen, Ken Kramer and Steve Rioff, with two outstanding juniors, Mark Peppercorn and Mike Ruby, who promise to form the nucleus of a successful team next year.

The Frosh-Sophs, coached by Mr. Durette, have followed in the footsteps of their Varsity superiors by scoring 5-0 victories against Waukegan and Proviso.

Ken Kramer displays the form which won him top-position on the year's racket squad.

RETURNING LETTERMEN BOLSTER HOPES OF GOLF TEAM

The varsity golf team began the season by eliminating all but ten men of a large number of turn outs for the squad. In regular dual meets only five men participate, but the five men are determined by challenges and qualifying matches. If a golfer can defeat a member of the top five, he takes his place.

The team plays out of Arlington Golf Course, which is considered one of the toughest in the Chicago area. Returning lettermen Dick Iverson and number one man, Bob Zender, a sophomore, go around the course in the low eighties. The five man squad is completed by Bob Hedrick, a promising junior; Bill Levin; and Dave Magnuson.

Dick Iverson demonstrates to Bob Zender and Dave Magnuson the form he uses to crease 250 yard drives.

N-CLUB RAISES STANDARD OF NILEHI ATHLETICS

Putting the finishing touches on the first prize Senior Class float are Top, Clockwise: Don Lewiston, Jim Tansor, Arlene Pfaff Kay Naylor, Steve Hawk (Class President), Sue Stockmar, and Dick Bourgerie.

A familiar face at East Division, Mr. Frank Markus, demonstrates his usual sense of humor and the mood of the evening at the annual N-Club - Faculty game.

Having devoted the majority of the year to the N-Club - Faculty game the N-Club made the occasion the highlight of the year. With an approximate crowd of 1200 persons looking on, the members put on one of the best shows ever put on at Nilehi. The goals of the N-Club, the largest club in school, are to raise the standards of athletics at Nilehi and to improve student-faculty relations. The N-Club, sponsored by Mr. Frala and Mr. Larson, is open to all boys who have won major awards in varsity athletics.

GAA SPONSORS TRADITIONAL SPRING TURNABOUT

Coordinating such inter-division activities as the Parent's Playnight is the job of the GAA officers Jeannean Babcock (President), Deanna Olson (Secretary), and Barbara Eckel (Treasurer).

Freshman initiates Mary Ann Freda, Ann Schramm, Alice Thorsen, Sandy Menconi, Charlotte Swanson, Marge Ostermeier, and Sydney Goldberg light the candles which symbolize joy, reverence, and sacrifice.

Barbara Eckel and Deanna Olson present roses to Mary Ann Freda and Yvette LeMieux after they have been formally initiated into the Girl's Athletic Association.

The GAA Homecoming Float won second prize in the "A" Class, a thrill for the girls who stayed up late and got up early to finish their "rock-a-bye" horse!

Modern dancers Linda Goldstein Pat Camerus, Sue Seegren, Mariana Marks, and Judy Widman practice the dance which they presented at the Parent's Playnight.

A hundred candles glow in the quiet of the auditorium. A hundred voices in unison say,

"I promise to uphold the ideals of the Girl's Athletic Association,
By promoting interest in athletics and in the out of doors;
By living so that I may be healthy and strong;
By making good sportsmanship a constant factor in my conduct."

A hundred hands hold the small pins that represent a year of active participation in the GAA. By helping on the homecoming float, decorating for the turnabout dance, being a part of the service projects at the old people's home and orphanage, and taking part in the athletic activities, these girls have earned the right to wear the pin that testifies to the hours of work and play they have had in the GAA.

Somewhere else on that stage sit the two girls, who with three hundred other girls from Northern Illinois, will attend GAA Leadership Camp. Somewhere, too, sits the girl who will receive the Arlene M. Merz Memorial Scholarship, which will help further her education in some field related to physical education.

The initiation ends, the hundred candles are extinguished, and another year of activity and achievement is added to the traditions of the Girls' Athletic Association.

Members of Ripplettes, Nilehi's synchronized swim club, practiced all year in preparation for their swim show, "Aquasphere". Back Row: S. Portman, F. Greisdorf, S. Brin, C. Bergeron, J. Weekly bowling gives girls a chance to have fun and improve their averages. Marcia Hagman, Carol Bertaloni, Erica Roven, and Dolores Ricci check their team's score sheet while taking a coke break.

Marlene Klein, participating in badminton, attempts to hit a "clear" far into her opponent's court.

Volleyball is one of the most popular team sports offered by the GAA. Combined teamwork and skill make a game exciting.

Members of the GAA Riding Club meet each week at Holdorf's Riding School to practice skills, ride in pairs and improve their equitation under the supervision of Mrs. Bernice Leadley, instructress.

Sue Krawitz watches as Diane Miller shows her the correct form for a quarter swing.

"It's gonna be a hit!" Louise Christianson bats and Claudette Phillips enjoy the softball games sponsored by the West Division G.A.A.

Tennis is a favorite individual sport. Marilyn Wegl serves to her opponent in a singles game.

SHARING

SPECIAL MOMENTS . . . A CHERISHED TRADITION

"Hey, what's going on?" cry Jack Maloney and Jim Tansor, as Penny Boom surveys the situation.

THE SPIRIT

Nilehi's second Homecoming Queen, Kip Herbst, ascends to her throne.

"Gridiron Glory" was highlighted by the coronation of our Queen Kip Herbst. Attendants include seniors Nancy McAvoy, Karen Cramer, and Ginger Golden, and juniors Marcia Braverman, Sharon Hirsch and Penny Hensel.

"Don't Toy With Us", slogan of the first prize float, proved good advice for Morton at the 1958 Homecoming game.

OF HOMECOMING GROWS THROUGH THE YEARS

Long hours of decorating floats, planning the dance, and drilling on the field are a part of the traditional Homecoming activities. October 11 was a cold and windy Homecoming Day, but sharing the excitement of this special event kept everyone warm—or almost warm!

Festivities began at 10 a.m. with the parade, after which prizes were awarded to the winning floats. Two o'clock came; the crowd yelled, "We want a touchdown, we want a touchdown"—and we made that final touchdown, giving the Trojans a 27-0 victory over Morton.

That night Nilehi students celebrated their "Gridiron Glory" at the dance, at which varsity co-captain Bill McGrath crowned Queen Kip Herbst. This is one of our newer traditions, started during the '57 school year.

All of these things, from the first boards nailed during a cold fall night, to the opening kick off, to the moment when the queen is crowned, make Homecoming one of our most special events.

CHRISTMAS DANCE, VESPERS, BRING TRADITION

Carolyn Kuchar and Rod Swanson visit Santa Claus (Don Brei) and his wife (Joan Norberg) at the "Candlelight Ball."

In a holiday wonderland of white candles and Christmas mobiles, happy couples dance at the "Candlelight Ball."

Donna Norman and Ron Krische agree that an old fashioned Christmas tree strung with pop corn and paper chains makes the Christmas season complete.

TO A NEW BUILDING

Twenty years of Christmas and all of the wonderful customs of the holiday season are remembered, as candy canes, mistletoe, and the fresh smell of pine decorate the halls of Nilehi. The festive Christmas spirit is in our hearts, in our homes, and in our school. One of the highlights of this season was our Christmas Dance, "Candlelight Ball." Held in Nilehi West, the Christmas spirit came to a brand new school where the beauty of the buildings was displayed and accented by beautiful Christmas decorations.

Christmas Vespers, a mass choral production, has long been a traditional holiday activity at Nilehi. "Silent Night" and "O Come, All Ye Faithful" echoed through the auditorium of Nilehi West as 400 students sang out the joy of this wonderful season.

The holiday spirit brings happiness in so many different ways; little children waiting up to see Santa Claus' reindeer, excited mothers buying gifts to put under the tree, and proud fathers dressing up as old St. Nick. The spirit of Christmas captures Nilehi, too, and the cherished traditions of dances and parties and singing and laughing will always live in our memory.

"RHYTHM IN WORDS" HIGHLIGHTS NILEHI'S ANNUAL REFLECTIONS

A variety of acts ranging from a violin solo to pop ballads, and from an impersonation of New York's Rockettes to an all-boy ballet, added spice and spunk to this year's Reflection's Revelries. Practicing long hours before try-outs proved rewarding for the twenty acts accepted for competition. Many more hours of diligent rehearsal were needed after the acts were chosen, to synchronize them into the final production. "Rhythm in Words" was guided by the skilled touch of Miss Stemp and Mr. Hendrickson, and the show presented in the West Division auditorium was a polished and professional production. Third prize this year went to a group of husky senior boys for their deadpan presentation of Swan Lake Ballet. Seven senior girls took second place with their whimsical portrayal of the seven dwarfs, and ten black-faced little pickaninnies stole the show with their happy, foot-stamping rendition of "Watermelon on the Vine."

This year's show was a high spot on Nile's activity calendar.

REVELRIES

Praising the glories of "Watermelon on the Vine" are the sophomore pickaninnies, who won first prize.

Sailors Fern Gilbert, Pauline Cotell, Pinky Weinstien, one of the other Reflection's acts, praise the charms of their "Honey Bun."

These aloof ballerinas (Mike Skol, Ralph Madden, Lance Lindquist, Ron Denly) in their filmy gowns danced to the melodic strains of Swan Lake, and won third prize.

A LOOK BEHIND THE SCENE IS THE THEME FOR "OFF CAMERA"

Time, talent and ideas were the essential ingredients of this year's musical "Off Camera." A production in which over 500 students participate requires many months of preparation before the actual signal can be given for "Curtain going up!" In the fall Mr. McGee, Mr. Auge, and the steering committee created a plot which combined both intense dramatic interest and popular songs from musicals such as "Annie Get Your Gun," "State Fair," "South Pacific," "Showboat," and "Music Man." The plot revolved around a "behind the scenes" production of a summer replacement television program in which a scheming femme fatale, Vivian, tries not only to take the lead away from Carol, the star vocalist, but also to secure the attention and affection of the dance director's fiance, Jerry.

The work that went into the "fictitious" production can be paralleled only to the time spent by the executive committee, headed by student directors Van Bradley and Marlene Derman, and the cast. Screams of joy could be heard in the West Division auditorium when aspiring young actors and actresses discovered that they had secured "their part." The work by no means ended with the selection of a capable cast; rehearsal dates were set and the production gradually began to jell. The authenticity of costumes and sets and the musical and dramatic excellence were enhanced by the breathtaking new West Division theatre.

Not only have the students acclaimed the musical as one of the most looked-forward-to traditions at Niles, but members of the community take pride in seeing the talent of students who are able to write, direct and enact a professional production.

"There's Nothing like a Dame!" shout sailors in a selection from South Pacific.

Members of the Saturday Night cast: Van Bradley, Marilyn Barnett, Larry Schwartz, and Sue Spero unfold the dramatic portion of "Off Camera."

The final curtain is about to close as the cast sings a chorus of "There's No Business like Show Business."

The Choir Dancers set a spring scene for "State Fair."

1959 PROM HELD

The high point of the 1958 Prom came when King Jerry Keidel and Queen Dianne Jefferson were crowned by Junior Class Vice-President Bill Tomsik.

The traditional Junior-Senior Prom recalls to each of us fond memories of a "perfect night". Some of us will remember our first new formal or tux, while others will dream only about the "special someone" that gave each song a certain meaning.

We had more than just a touch of "spring fever" on the night of May 29 as we danced in the beautifully decorated new gymnasium. The waltzing of the King and Queen and their partners added even more to this picture of spring loveliness.

When the last dance was played, no one could hold back a sigh of regret at the thought that the big event had actually come to an end. It really wasn't an end, though, because couples then proceeded to such glamorous places as the Chez Paree and the Pump Room. Traditional "after-the-Prom" breakfasts of sizzling bacon and scrambled eggs began early the next morning. The warmth of the sands and the blue of the waves at the Dunes or Cedar Lake completed the wonderful Prom festivities. The freshman entering high school will dream ahead to the time when he or she, too, may be a part of this wonderful tradition, and the senior will often look back on this event that climaxed his four years of social activity.

Admiring the dainty yellow Prom bids are seniors Lee Isel, Ron Lis, Jackie Faust, and Bill McDowell.

AT NILEHI-WEST BEGINS NEW TRADITION

The crowd is hushed as the 1958 Prom Leaders and their partners waltz alone.

Noel Ostrom and Susan Backus, members of National Honor Society, greet the proud parents of a '58 graduate, while a fascinated little brother looks on.

COMMENCEMENT JOINS PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

In the past twenty years, Niles has undergone vast physical changes. Her traditions, however, have not been changed, but supplemented. Perhaps one of the most important traditions, graduation, can be considered a culmination of four years at Nilehi, but it is not an end. Graduation marks the beginning of our life of self-dependence. Amidst the beauty of this ceremony, our thoughts are not only nostalgic ones of dances, activities, friends, and classes, but ones that are turned ahead. For as we walk through the open door to the future, the moral traditions of Nilehi, even more than her high scholastic influence, have enabled us to make the decisions that will benefit ourselves and our society.

At the 1958 Senior Breakfast, Mr. Keith Hertwick laughs over a gift of a pair of binoculars while Bruce Fyfe, Jerry Keidel, and Mr. Harold Olson look on.

The traditional music of "Pomp and Circumstance" marks the end of four years of life at Nilehi.

Dr. Reinhart congratulates happy graduates with a smile, a handshake, and the words "Best of Luck."

FRIENDSHIP . . .

BASIC TRADITION OF NILEHI

"Remember when — ", says Paul Heinz to Sandy Eggert as they pause under ice-coated trees. Each one of us finds his own special traditions while sharing with others the traditions of twenty previous classes at Niles.

SENIORS

Working on the Senior Class float for the traditional Homecoming Parade is one of the big events of the year. Rich Bourgerie, Susie Stockmar, Steve Hawk, Kay Naylor, Arlene Pfaff, Don Lewiston, and Jim Tansor put the finishing touches on the teddy bear that won first place to the delight of the seniors who worked long and hard.

The senior year is an all-important one. Four years of work, study, and fun begin to have meaning; something almost over, something almost beginning. The school crest, once just an attractive design on a book cover, takes on new significance as plans for the future take shape. The lamp of knowledge, the scales of justice, the crown of character, the chevron of service and leadership, and the handclasp of friendship, all are represented in the many facets of this senior year. Each graduating senior is expected to uphold these traditions, and he begins to realize his responsibilities to his parents, school, and above all, himself.

Conflicting emotions are another sign of a senior year — emotions ranging from easy assurance to unspoken anxiety, from twinges of nostalgia to breathless anticipation — and always, the increasing awareness of how much there is to learn! Other books and other book covers will replace those the '59 graduate now carries, but he takes with him the ideas and ideals of his school crest.

Senior Class Cabinet makes plans for the graduation ceremony, the senior picnic and breakfast, the class will and prophecy, and the class gift. S. Hawk (President) conducts the meeting as officers D. Nelson (Secretary), A. Ricordati (Fist Vice-President, G. Johnson (Treasurer), and A. Demas (Second Vice-President) watch. Back Row: G. Fogarty, D. Corr, N. Carberry, C. Bonfiglio, T. "It's a holiday—today's the Wedding of the Painted Doll". Seniors Lynn Eggers, Pat French, Sharon Buckman, Kip Herbst, Jackie Faust, Marianna Marks, Gwen Bauerlein, and Connie Slavo dance their way to the wedding in the 1959 Reflections Revelries.

As the student starts his junior year, he begins to realize that there are more important things in life than wondering which girl to date or how to get the car for the weekend. These are problems, to be sure, but other things take on new significance; the word "future", for example. The fall publication of class rank gives him a "nudge", and as college preparations begin, he realizes that the lower half — or even two-thirds — of the class is not where he wants to be. With the assistance of the college counselors, he tackles the problem of college — where, why, and how.

The year progresses — juniors build floats, supervise study halls, write research papers, attend "college-bound" assemblies, officiate at language club, and then at last — and all of a sudden — prom plans are being discussed! Prom time mean excitement, planning for formals, decorations, corsages, chaperones; it also means that those final exams and the summer vacation are not far behind. The year has been hard work — but rewarding. One more to go!

SOPHOMORES CARRY SPIRIT OF TRADITIONS TO NILEHI WEST

A "sophisticated" sophomore's life is exciting but not easy, especially this year at Niles West. He's just a sophomore, but he's also an upperclassman, with no juniors and seniors around to "take the wind out of his sails."

If he himself is confused, the blase sophomore doesn't show it, because as the freshman's "Big Brother," he has the responsibility of guidance and of establishing the events and traditions acquired during his freshman year at Niles East, traditions which are now part of both buildings.

In spite of struggles with his first or second year of language, and some temporary confusion with algebra and geometry, he still has time for friends and extra-curricular activities, trying to prove that in his case, a year older is a year wiser!

FRESHMEN LEARN TRADITIONS OF CREST AND CODE

"Who, me?" says the freshman, recalling his bewilderment those first few days of school. Were those his knees knocking? And what has happened to all those strange faces?

His fears have long since disappeared, along with that "two feet tall" feeling. The corridors no longer seem an endless maze; high school is now a familiar and friendly place.

It's been a year of change. Through trial and error, the freshman has learned how to "juggle" homework, social life — and more homework. He has joined clubs, worked on committees, and although now a relatively unknown athlete, may be next year's biggest star! Above all, the freshmen of that fall of '59 know the pleasures — and sometimes problems — of being in an entirely new school. He has assumed responsibility, both in and out of the classroom; he has worked on Student Council and Freshman Cabinet, cheered at the games, danced at the unions, and learned how to carry all those books without taking on a permanent "tilt". Advice given by his shophomore "Big Brother" or "Big Sister" has helped him through all the "firsts" of a freshman year, and for his final word on the matter — "I like it!"

FACULTY UPHOLDS IDEALS OF CREST

Helping the student to realize his potentialities and plan ahead for future educational opportunities is an aspect of teaching of which Nilehi is rightfully proud. Miss Lamberg offers suggestions to Bill Nack as he tries to decide which college will best provide the courses and training he needs.

Dedication to excellence and respect fine traditions summarize the educational ideals of Mr. Paul J. Houghton, Acting Superintendent.

EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE IS GOAL OF ADMINISTRATION

Memorable on two counts, 1958-59 at Niles Township High School has been celebrated both as the 20th anniversary of the opening of Nilehi East and as the year of the dedication of Nilehi West.

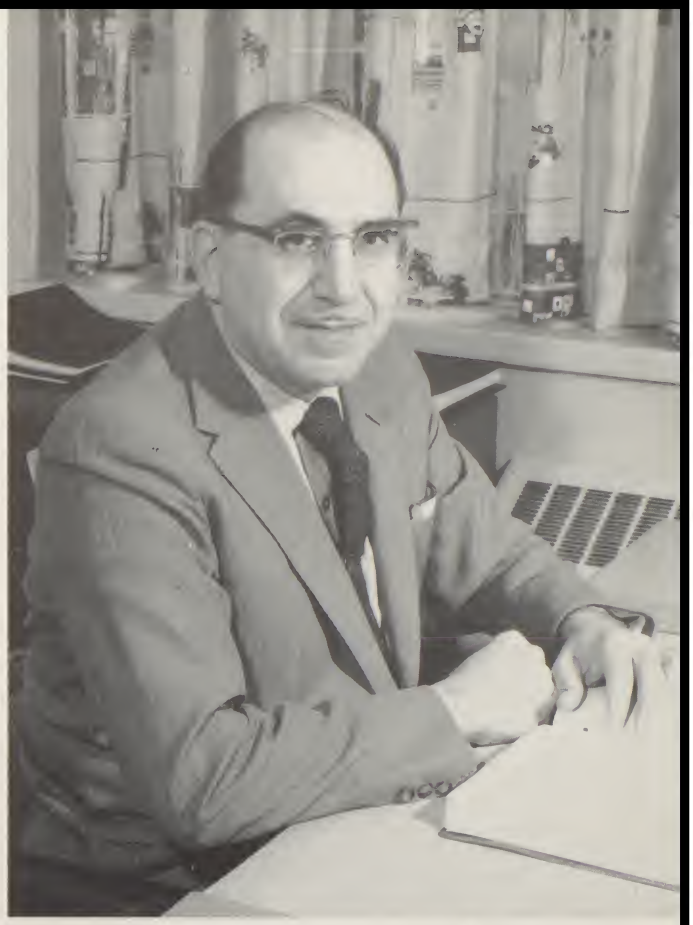
In a deeper sense, we have commemorated this year the two outstanding facts now true of our school: it has come of age and it has joined the ranks of the very large high schools.

From prairie school of 600 students in 1939 to flourishing suburban school of 3400 in 1959 is a growth statistic almost without parallel. But soaring enrollment, with all its problems of accommodation and building expansion, has not obscured the most important characteristics of Niles Township High School: dedication to educational excellence and respect for fine traditions.

The seniors of 1959 have the passive distinction of being the graduation class of a commemorative year, but their true distinction comes from the outstanding contributions they have made to the Nilehi heritage. We honor them for having written a chapter in the Nilehi story that will inspire those in all of their future endeavors.

Paul J. Houghton

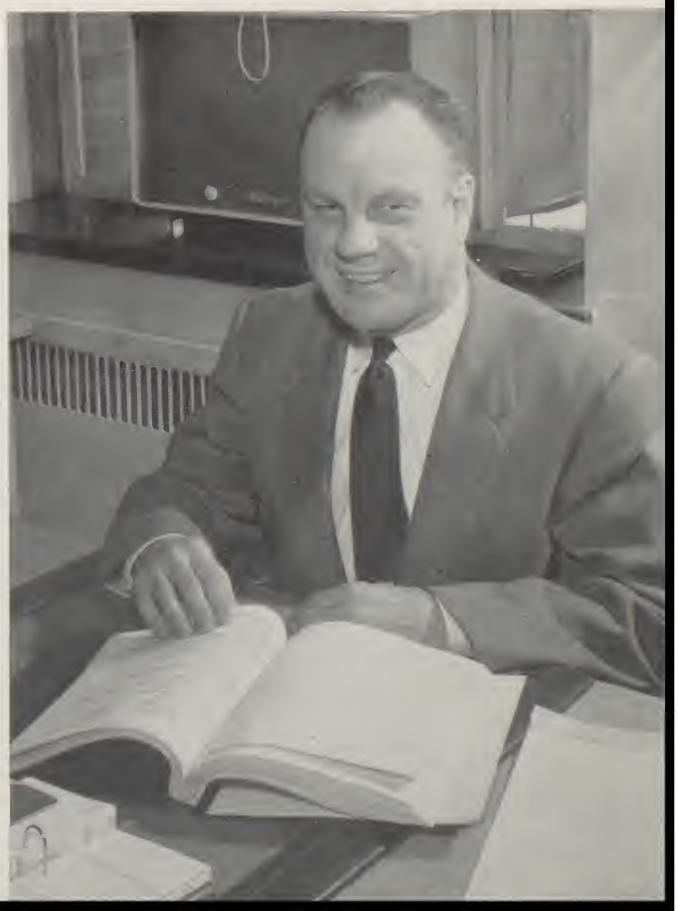
Dr. Stuart Anderson, Assistant Superintendent, aids Mr. Houghton in the administrative duties of both East and West Divisions.



Mr. Harold Ohlson is the Director of Planning, Publications, and Research.

Mr. Charles Coker, Business Manager, controls all purchasing and is in charge of the non-teaching personnel.

Dr. Arthur H. Ryden, Director of Guidance, coordinates the guidance programs of East and West Divisions.



ADMINISTRATION STRESSES UNIFIED

Education has always played an important role in American democracy. From the days of the Declaration of Independence to the present, Americans have realized the necessity of public education for political, social, and economic progress. President Eisenhower is quoted as follows in a pamphlet published by the Educational Policies Commission:

> "Because our schools help shape the mind and character of our youth, the strength or weakness of our educational system will go far to determine the strength or weakness of our national wisdom and our national morality tomorrow. That is why it is essential to our nation that we have good schools. And their quality depends on all of us."

Mr. John J. Gach, principal, directs the activities of the students and teachers at the West Division.

Mr. Bill A. Bost is the assistant principal of the West Division in charge of freshmen.

Dr. Nicholas Mannos is the assistant principal of the West Division in charge of sophomores.

SPIRIT OF EAST AND WEST

Unity is a factor necessary to schools if they are to fulfull their purpose as defined by President Eisenhower. As our administration prepared for Niles' twentieth year they faced a unique problem — that of maintaining one school in two buildings. Freshman began their high school careers in the new West Division building as the sophomores worked to organize and establish there traditions and activities learned as freshmen. The shared traditions of friendship, service, leadership, scholarship, and justice serve to keep the divisions united, as do the administrators of the two buildings. Under the guidance of these men we remain a spiritually, if not physically, united school, with the crest continuing as the symbol of our joint traditions.

Dr. J. Keith Kavanaugh, principal, directs the activities of the students and teachers at the East Division.

Mr. Marvin H. Ihne is the assistant principal of the East Division in charge of juniors.

Mr. Keith Hertweck is the assistant principal of the East Division in charge of seniors.

Mr. M. William Wise presides over a meeting of school board members Mr. Kenneth E. Littrell, Dr. Francis J. Saunders, Dr. John H. Speer (Secretary), Mr. Ernest Eisenberg, Mr. W. Warren Meyer, and Mr. Clyde V. Anderson. Under their guidance the East Division began its twentieth year, and last year's plans for the West Division were realized when 1,800 students started school in the new building.

SCHOOL BOARD DEDICATES NILEHI WEST

The summer of 1958 saw the completion of the West Division building, and when in September its doors were first opened to admit students, 1800 freshmen and sophomores entered to begin the 1958-59 school year. On Saturday, October 19, 1958, many local and state dignitaries took part in a School Board-sponsored dedication ceremony for this new building.

Equally as important as the opening of the West Division was the installation, in 1958, of a remodeled and re-equipped suite of physics and chemistry laboratories in the East Division.

These are but two of the events that took place under the guidance of the Board of Education.

Relative newcomer though it is, Niles Township High School is large, ranking sixth in size among the 26 suburban high school units of Cook County. Moreover, its growth gradient is among the steepest to be found anywhere; enrollment is conservatively estimated to double in six years. Accordingly, the Board of Education has borne duties and responsibilities that have grown progressively so heavy during recent years that, during the inter-election year, April 12, 1958 to April 10, 1959, scheduling meetings of at least weekly frequency has become the norm rather than the exception.

The purpose and motivation of these meetings remains constant. As always, the Board's abiding interest has been to secure the best available educational opportunities for the youth of the district by improving physical plant accommodation, curriculum development, and instruction.

The best illustration of exploratory interest in curriculum development and improvement of instruction is the Board's departmental reports project. Under this project, department heads are invited to sit with the Board and review the history of departmental growth, examine the present state of departmental affairs, and inquire into the prospects and problems of future developments. Illustrative of the Board's actions on behalf of curriculum enrichment is the approval it has given for introducing several new courses of study in the 1959-60 school year: Russian, biology for academically talented freshmen; "Business Communications", "Business Mathematics", "Modern Communications", and American History as an advanced placement course for seniors.

In addition, the Board authorized the administration to develop a pilot, co-operative program with industry to provide work experience for outstanding junior students of science, and has expanded the summer school program.

The PTA officers for 1958-59 are Mrs. Russell Reinger (President), Mrs. Herbert Siemund (Recording Secretary), Mrs. Edwin C. Krumsieg (Treasurer), and Mrs. Sol Ashbach (First Vice-President).

ACTIVE PTA SERVES COMMUNITY'S YOUTH

Serving as hostesses at the faculty dinner, selling hot dogs at home football games, presenting an open house in both divisions so parents can "go to class" and meet the teachers, and awarding prizes for the Homecoming floats, are just some of the activities of the Nilehi Parent-Teacher Association.

The PTA has ably maintained and promoted the parent-teacher relationship necessary for the successful operation of a large educational institution. Through interesting and informative programs and its monthly bulletin, the NILE-A-GRAM, the PTA has indeed placed itself in a position to make Nilehi proud of the tradition of an active Parent-Teacher Association.

Mr. Thomas Blackburn explains the purpose of an art course to the parents attending the PTA-sponsored open house.

(Deceased: December 26, 1958)

Faculty members lead a rousing cheer for their team at the traditional N-Club-Faculty game. The faculty, victorious for the fifth straight year, won by 20 points.

Graciously receiving all visitors to the West Division and directing them to the proper persons is the work of the receptionist, Mrs. B. Moe.

NON-TEACHING STAFFS HELP SCHOOL RUN SMOOTHLY

Most of us have little contact with Niles' non-teaching staff, but our school could not continue without these people who this year comprise two separate staffs, one for each division.

The tremendous amount of equipment and textbooks purchased each year is handled by the West Division business office, and complete records of these transactions are kept by the accountants in both divisions. The library and Audio-Visual Aids perform important functions in student's education by making books, pamphlets, reference material, films, records, and slide projections available to all.

The incidental but important details which we sometimes take for granted, such as the daily homeroom bulletins, the Public-Address announcements, and the distribution of school mail, are performed by the main office staff of both divisions. To correlate the absence of a student from class with a legalized absence from school is an important function of the attendance offices. The gracious and efficient superintendents' secretaries handle appointments and arrange conferences.

Many of us take for granted the duties of the cafeteria and custodial staffs, but nourishing meals, sparkling windows, and the attractive campus are certainly not to be overlooked as essential parts of our school. These people are important to us not only for the duties which they perform, but for their friendly and helpful attitudes.

Handling the sale of new books, maintaining registrations and assisting the administrators in their work are among the duties of the West Division Main Office staff. Standing: Mrr. D. Scanlan (Registrar), Mrs. P. Keyes (Secretary to Mr. Gach), Mrs. B. Kuegeman (Secretary to Dr. Mannos), Mrs. B. Kangas, Mrs. R. Oswald (Switchboard), Mrs. E. Zehnle (Secretary to Mr. Bost). Seated: Mrs. H. McGinnis, Mrs. G. Leapley.

Duplicating tests, keeping a lost and found department, operating the switchboard, distributing mail, handling teachers' supplies, and issuing announcements are the duties of the East Division Main Office staff. Mrs. R. Johnson, Mrs. E. Christopher, Mrs. A. Pazen, and Mrs. S. Terman.

Working on student subject cards and schedules in 114 are East Division staff members Mrs. J. Leineweber, Mrs. B. Godfriaux (Registrar), and Mrs. M. Vrablik.

Mrs. L. Lubin (secretary to Mr. Ohlson), Mrs. T. Glading (Receptionist), Mrs. J. Stollery (Secretary to Dr. Anderson), and Miss L. Herbster (Secretary to Mr. Houghton) type letters, arrange conferences, and make appointments for the administrators.

Tradition as symbolized by the school crest, the erection of the new West Division building, and the twentieth anniversary of Nilehi East have formed the theme of the '59 Reflections. Many thanks go to Miss Jean Jackson, sponsor of the general yearbook staff; Mr. Henry Abrams, sponsor of the sophomore staff; Mr. G. K. Schrock, senior Section sponsor; Mr. Koenig of the Norman King Publishing Company, and the photographers of Root Studio for their aid. Our thanks, also, to the faculty and administration for their assistance and cooperation in continuing the tradition of Reflections.
